OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli. S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

PETER ANGELOS
MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August of 1993.

Since 1993 the Orioles have led the American League in attendance and have set new club records in either overall attendance or sold out games. The Orioles have led the American League in average attendance each of the past five years and have reached the American League Championship series twice. Further, since purchasing the team in 1993, ownership has increased annual club revenues by a margin of 55%. Every dollar of this increased revenue has been directed toward improving the product on the field. The Orioles ownership has committed to building a winner by signing players to long-term contracts and rebuilding a farm system that is now just beginning to pay dividends. The Orioles competitive record on the field and financial performance at the box office have improved both the value of the franchise and the baseball experience for Orioles fans.

Mr. Angelos has also taken constructive steps off the field. Fans who were seated in box seats down the left and right field lines had complained since the park's opening because their seats were improperly angled toward center field. More than 3,300 seats in question have been adjusted to improve their angle. Fans who felt uncomfortable when being approached near the ballpark by aggressive ticket scalpers received support from the Baltimore City Council in 1994 after Mr. Angelos sponsored a bill to banish the practice from the areas within 10 blocks of Camden Yards. In 1995 a "scalp free zone" was created at the ballpark for fans wishing to purchase tickets or sell tickets to others for face value. In addition, many fans whose season tickets were unfairly relocated when the club moved from Memorial Stadium had these injustices rectified at the insistence of Mr. Angelos.

Beyond correcting inherited problems and building a club fans can be proud of, the Orioles, through Mr. Angelos' leadership continues to make substantial contributions to the Maryland community, particularly for children. This past year the Orioles Charitable Foundation contributed to organizations such as The American Cancer Society, Boys and Girls Clubs, The Baltimore Zoo, The Johns Hopkins Children's Center, The Kennedy Krieger Institute, the Special Olympics, the Baltimore Baseball League, the American Lung Association, Saint Joseph Medical Center Foundation, University of Maryland Medical System, Maryland Public Broadcasting, Afram, and the Maryland Science Center. For the sixth straight year, the Orioles were the sponsor of the Baltimore Symphony Gala.

In 1998 the Orioles designated Cancer Research and Awareness as the team's community initiative. This initiative was chosen in response to the number of current, future and former Orioles stricken by the disease. Fundraising and cancer awareness events were held throughout the year.

In August, 1997, the Orioles presented the Trust for Public Land with a $100,000 donation as a matching gift to be used toward the renovation of the newly renamed Leon Day Park, (formerly Bloomingdale Oval Park). The funding was used to develop a baseball field at the park.

During Mr. Angelos' leadership, the Orioles, through its foundation and client contributions have donated 4.2 million to charitable causes.

Peter Angelos was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he is the President and managing partner of the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C. He is a member of the American Trial Lawyers Association, American Bar Association, Maryland State Bar Association, District of Columbia Bar Association, Tennessee Bar Association and the New York State Trial Lawyers Association.

Mr. Angelos, known nationally for his success as a plaintiff's attorney, is admitted to practice before the courts of Maryland, Federal Courts, District of Columbia, Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, the United States Supreme Court, and the United States Supreme Tax Court. In addition, Mr. Angelos has practiced in New York, Tennessee, and before the courts of numerous jurisdictions in the country.

Mr. Angelos has served the community as a member of the Baltimore City Council. He presently serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of Loyola College, The John Hopkins University, Western Maryland College, and the University of Baltimore, where he also serves on the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law. He also serves on the boards of the University of Maryland Foundation, the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Saint Joseph's Hospital, the Grant-A-Wish Foundation and University of Maryland Hospital.

He has received Honorary Doctorate Degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the American Academy of Achievement and the Breath of Life Lung Association. Mr. Angelos is the recipiant of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, the Pillar of Sports Advertising Club award, and the AFL-CIO Social Justice award. He was also named Sportsman of the Year in 1995 by the New York Daily News. In 1998, Mr. Angelos was named Marylander of the Year by the Editorial Board of the Baltimore Sun. Mr. Angelos was voted the most Influential Person in Baltimore 1999 by the readers of the Baltimore Business Journal. He received the Common Ground Award for Sports Diplomacy and the Urban League's Whitney M. Young, Jr. Award.

He and his wife, Georgia Kousouris Angelos, reside in Baltimore. They have two sons, John and Louis.

TOM CLANCY
VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In the mid-1980's, Tom Clancy was an obscure Maryland insurance broker with a passion for naval history and only a letter to the editor and a brief article on the MX missile to his credit. Years before, he had been an English major at Baltimore's Loyola College and had always dreamed of writing a novel. His first effort, The Hunt for Red October, the story of a Russian submarine captive who defects to the United States, sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted on to the New York Times bestseller list after President Ronald Reagan pronounced it "the perfect yarn" and "non-put-downable." Since then, Clancy has established himself as the undisputed king of the techno-thriller, a literary genre he's credited with invention, and a master at building realistic scenarios by "turning up the volume" on current events and political reality. Other #1 bestsellers followed: Patriot Games, Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, and mostrecently, Rainbow Six.

The walls of Clancy's office are lined with war games, books on weapons, and government produced maps, all tribute to his lifelong fascination with technology and the military. Although severe myopia limited his personal involvement as a member of the armed forces to a brief stint in Loyola's ROTC program, the success of his books has resulted in his "adoption" by the military. He is regularly welcomed aboard jets, submarines, and destroyers, and permitted to ride in tanks to his heart's content. Admirals and generals give him access, Pentagon officials debrief him, and many of his books are required reading at our nation's war colleges

His non-fiction works include Submarine, Armored Cav, Fighter Wing, Marine, Airborne, and Into the Storm: A Study in Command with General Fred Franks, Jr. (Ret.). He is the co-creator of the Op-Center, Power Plays, and Net Force series.

Despite the astonishing publicity surrounding all of his novels, Clancy insists the cocktail party circuit is not for him and his life has not changed all that much. Clancy proudly married Alexandra Maria Llewellyn, whom he refers to as his soul mate, in April of 1999. He is the father of four children by a previous marriage.

JOE FOSS
VICE CHAIRMAN/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Now in his seventh season as the Orioles Vice Chairman, Joe Foss oversees all of the club's day-to-day operations. These include all of the business, financial, and administrative operations, as well as working with the Baseball Operations Department on budgets and player contracts.

Foss is a Trustee of the League Baseball Players Benefit Plan. He is a member of the American League Board of Directors, the American League Scheduling Committee, and the Joint Committee for International Play. On June 1, 1993, Foss joined Peter Angelos' acquisition team and then supervised the transition between ownerships. Mr. Angelos appointed him to Vice Chairman on December 9, 1993.

Foss graduated from St. Thomas College in St. Paul, MN in 1970, where he received his BA in Business Administration. In 1972, he received his MBA in Marketing/Finance from the University of Minnesota at Mankato. His extensive educational background led to 17 successful years in the banking industry with the Norwest Corporation in Minneapolis where he held positions from Commercial Banking Officer to Senior Vice President.

Foss continued his career in banking when he relocated to the Washington metropolitan area and accepted the position of President and Chief Operating Officer of First American Bank, N.A., of Washington in December '89. In April 1991, he was elected Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Community involvement is very important to Foss. He is an active board member of the Kennedy-Krieger Institute, the Maryland Special Olympics, the Maryland Science Center, the Babe Ruth Museum, and the National Aquarium.
He is a former board member of the Children's Theatre Company of Minneapolis, former president of the Minnesota Aquatennial Association, and former treasurer and trustee of The Green Door, located in Washington, DC.

Joe was born December 27, 1948 in Minneapolis. Foss and his wife Dawn have three children, Katie (18), Annie (14), and Michael (12). They reside in Cockeysville, MD.

Camp Puh'tok, located in Monkton, MD, is a camp for underprivileged children. In November 1998, Lou was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research.

A Baltimore native, Lou currently resides in Timonium, MD with his wife Pat. Kousouris has two children, Louis III, a West Point graduate stationed in Korea, and Alexandra, who will graduate from the University of Georgia in May 2000.

SYD THRIFT

VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Syd Thrift enters his 6th season in the Orioles organization and his first as Vice President, Baseball Operations. In this newly created position, Syd is in charge of the day-to-day baseball operations, overseeing the major league, minor league and scouting departments.

Syd joined the Orioles in 1995 as Director of Player Development and remained in that position until being named Director of Player Personnel in January, 1999. Prior to joining the Orioles, he served as the Assistant General Manager of the Chicago Cubs from 1991-94. While working with the Orioles, he has stressed an individualized year-round conditioning program for players and an increase in the number of scouts used on both the amateur and professional levels.

Syd brought many innovative ideas into the baseball operations of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Kansas City Royals, Oakland A's, New York Yankees and Chicago Cubs before joining the Orioles. As the General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates from 1985 through 1988, Thrift was instrumental in leading the Pirates from a last place team to a contender. He gave respected manager Jim Leyland his start as a major league skipper in 1985 with the Pirates.

The former left-handed pitcher and first baseman began his professional playing career in the New York Yankees farm system in 1949. He began his post-playing baseball career as a scout for the Yankees and Pirates in the 1950s. In 1967 he joined the Kansas City Royals, where he served as Eastern Scouting Director and founding Director of the Royals' renowned Baseball Academy in 1970. The academy produced 14 major leaguers, including 8-time Gold Glove winner Frank White. He later served as Director of Player Personnel for the Oakland Athletics and as Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations for the New York Yankees.
Thrift left baseball in 1977 to pursue a real estate career, opening Syd Thrift and Associates, Inc. Realtors in Vienna, VA. While serving that company as President and CEO, he remained active in baseball. In 1981, Syd was part of a coaching staff for a high school All-American baseball team that toured Sweden, Denmark and Finland. One of the members of that team was Bobby Bonilla, who Syd recommended that the Pittsburgh Pirates sign.

In 1988 he was named Dapper Dan "Man of the Year" in Pittsburgh, the first non-player to be so honored. In 1987, Syd was honored by the Arthritis Foundation and was Vector's "Man of the Year" in sports. In 1990 he was awarded an honorary doctorate of law from his alma mater, Randolph-Macon College in Ashland, VA. He was presented the Edwin Rommel Award in 1995 for years of contribution to the game and in 1998, he was inducted into both the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and the Randolph-Macon College Athletic Hall of Fame.

In 1990 he authored "The Game According to Syd," published by Simon and Schuster and co-written by Barry Shapiro. Numerous college, high school and youth baseball programs have used the teaching and training book.

A native of Locust Hill, VA, Thrift graduated from high school at the age of 16. He then attended Randolph-Macon College where he graduated at the age of 20. While in college, Syd played baseball and earned All-State honors. In June of 1949, the left-handed pitcher signed with the New York Yankees organization.

Syd and his wife, Dolly, have two sons, Jim (37) and Mark (35). Jim is married to the former Michelle Fort and they have four children: Ryan (8), Audrey (6), Brandon (5), and Aaron (2).

He will oversee all aspects of the organization's farm system and is the first African-American to head a department in the club's Baseball Operations Department.

A .264 career hitter, Buford spent five of his 10 major league seasons with the Orioles, 1968-72. As the Orioles lead-off batter and offensive catalyst, he had an on-base percentage over .400 from 1969 through 1971, helping the Orioles to three straight American League pennants and one World Championship in that time. He also made the 1971 AL All-Star team. In all, he played 17 years of professional baseball. He was the Chicago White Sox rookie of the year in 1964 and spent five years with the Sox before being traded to the Orioles on Nov. 29, 1967. He grounded into only 34 double plays in his career, and his GIDP rate of one every 133.9 at bats is the best in major league history. He retired in 1976 after playing four seasons in Japan.

He rejoined the Orioles organization in June 1988 as manager Frank Robinson's bench coach before moving into the Player Development office in 1989. He served three years as Director of Field Operations before moving back into uniform as manager at AA Bowie for two years, where in 1993 he was voted to manage the Class AA All-Star Game. Buford joined the Orioles major league staff in 1994 as bench coach and defensive coordinator before moving back to the front office in 1995 as Assistant Director of Player Development, where he remained until he was promoted to his current position.

Buford played three years of baseball and two years of football at the University of Southern California, graduating in 1959 with a B.S. degree in physical education. He was an all-Pacific Coast team running back and was named to the all-opponent team by both Notre Dame and UCLA. In baseball, he was a member of the Trojans' 1958 NCAA College World Series champs.

Don and his wife of 39 years, Alescia, make their permanent home in Sherman Oaks, CA. They have three sons all tackling different aspects of athletics: Don Jr., an orthopedic surgeon specializing in sports medicine; Daryl, a sports attorney; and Damon, an outfielder with the Chicago Cubs. While serving as an assistant baseball coach at USC from 1985 through 1988, he coached both Don and Damon.

In 1993, Buford was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame.

TONY DEMACIO
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Tony DeMacio, 55, begins his second season as the Orioles' Director of Scouting and already has left his mark on the organization's future. In the 1999 First Year Player Draft, he oversaw the Orioles' selection of seven of the first 50 picks, including four first round and three "sandwich" selections and was instrumental in the getting the organization's first 13 picks signed. The draft was widely hailed in baseball circles not just for the quantity of early picks, but for the quality of the selections.

DeMacio was named to his current position on December 4, 1998, after spending four seasons (1995-98) as East Coast Scouting Supervisor with the Chicago Cubs. He began his baseball career with the Atlanta Braves and was with them for seven years, from 1983-90. Tom Glavine, two-time Cy Young Award winner, was the first player that Tony signed for the Braves. The last player he signed before leaving the Braves was infielder Chipper Jones.

Tony joined the Cleveland Indians organization in 1991 and was closely involved in drafts that brought future major leaguers Manny Ramirez, Chad Ogea, Albie Lopez, Jon Nunnally, Paul Shuey, Pep Harris, Paul Byrd and Herbert Perry to the Indians farm system. He served as National Crosschecker for the Cleveland Indians and in '94 he was a major league scout for Cleveland. Following the 1994 season, he joined the Cubs.

A Pittsburgh, PA native, he attended Parsons College in Fairfield, IA where he played four years of baseball. Tony currently resides in Virginia Beach, VA. He has one daughter, Heather, who resides in Sparks, MD.

JOE CODD: THE ONE AND ONLY

ORIOLES IN THE COMMUNITY:
BEYOND THE YARD

For the past 15 years the Orioles community efforts have been focused through the Orioles Community Relations Department. During this period, the ballclub has broadened the scope and emphasis of its community outreach. Below is a brief summary of some of the many community initiatives undertaken during the last year.

BEYOND THE YARD
THE 1999 SEASON

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES, INC.

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in our community. Since the current ownership group, headed by Peter Angelos, purchased the Orioles following the 1993 season, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. have donated more than $4.1 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

RENOVATING FIELDS

During the past several years through a partnership with Saturn Heritage Automotive Group, two fields in Baltimore City, and one field each in Anne Arundel County and Howard County were renovated to create a "Field of Dreams" for local children. In addition, the Orioles donated $100,000 which will help create a baseball field at Leon Day Park on the Trust for Public Land's Gwynns Falls Trail.

TICKET DONATIONS

Many Orioles players made the dream of attending a major league baseball game a reality for thousands of area children. Players purchased tickets so that children from charitable, non-profit youth organizations had the opportunity to take in ballgames at Oriole Park.

In 1999, some players who continued or established programs included: Cal Ripken (Cal's Because We Care Program), Mike Mussina (Mooseketeers), Jesse Orosco (Jesse's Kids), Brady Anderson (Anderson's All-Stars), Scott Erickson (The Erickson Zone), and B.J. Surhoff's ticket program for special education teachers.

The Orioles organization also donated more than 3,000 tickets to charitable organizations and hosted 10,000 students from schools throughout the state of Maryland during Safety Patrol days at the ballpark.

PITCH AND HIT CLINICS

Children in the Orioles region learned to play ball courtesy of Coca-Cola and the home team. At the clinics, both Orioles players and coaches taught children 6-12 the art of pitching and hitting.

ORIOLES APPEARANCES

Orioles heroes past and present took their place in the community and attended more than 250 appearances throughout the region. Clinics, schools, the Babe Ruth Museum, libraries, and Little League organizations benefit through this program. The Orioles Bird mascot also "flew" to more than 450 appearances all over the region in communities from Virginia to Pennsylvania.

THE ORIOLES SUMMER READING PROGRAM

More than 85,000 kids from 19 Maryland counties and the city's Police Athletic League participated in the Orioles Summer Reading Program sponsored by The Baltimore Sun. Mike Mussina was the program's spokesman. The O's hurler pitched the printed word on posters and bookmarks distributed throughout participating libraries, and a top reader from each county was recognized on the field during a pre-game ceremony in September.

ORIOLES REVIVING BASEBALL IN THE INNER CITY (RBI) PROGRAM

The Orioles RBI League encourages young adults ages 13-18 to stay in school, develop self-esteem, and enjoy the pleasures of big league baseball. RBI is a national Major League Baseball initiative administered locally by the Orioles and Coca-Cola. Last year B.J. Surhoff and Delino DeShields were the spokesmen for the program.

BALTIMORE BASEBALL LEAGUE

Promoting the childhood pleasure of playing baseball and building better reading skills is the purpose of the Baltimore Baseball League. More than 800 fourth and fifth graders from 46 elementary schools played the game of baseball for the first time. To participate, each student read five books and wrote a book report on each during the season. The program is supported by the Orioles, the Abell Foundation, the Macht Foundation, the Baltimore City Department of Education, the Baltimore City Department of Recreation and Parks, and is run by the Parks and People Foundation.

LITTLE LEAGUE PARADE

Kids and coaches paraded around the warning track on the field on Little League Day at the park. Each team that participated received a signed item from an Orioles player to use as a fund-raiser for their league.

COMMUNITY BOOTH

During each game the Orioles provide a community booth for charitable, non-profit organizations to give out information, sell raffle tickets, register participants, or do health care screenings for Orioles fans. Groups that used the booth in 1999 included: the American Cancer Society, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, The Babe Ruth Museum, Coalition to End Childhood Lead Poisoning, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Federation, and the Orioles Advocates.

ORIOLES WIVES ORGANIZATION

The Orioles Wives worked with Habitat for Humanity last season to build a house for a needy family. As part of their fund-raising efforts they produced the 1999 Orioles Bird Feed cookbook with recipes from all the Orioles players, coaches and broadcasters. The wives sold the books at the community booth during the final month of all home games at Camden Yards. The books raised more than $60,000, with proceeds benefiting the wives' Habitat for Humanity project and the Johns Hopkins Childrens' Center.

In addition to their work with the cookbook, the Orioles Wives hosted a Food Collection to benefit the Maryland Food Bank. Their work has netted more than 70,000 pounds of food for needy Marylanders over the past 11 years. During the past two years, the wives collected $17,000 in contributions that were used to purchase turkeys for Thanksgiving.

Last year, over $64,000 was raised with help from Orioles players and wives at the Orioles annual Charity Golf Outing. Proceeds benefit the wives' Habitat for Humanity project, the Oriole Advocates Charitable Foundation, which sponsors the Champion Little League for disabled children and little league organizations, and the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball from Oriole Park at Camden Yards." His house is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles.

The museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. Among this year's highlights are exhibits on Babe Ruth, baseball's Player of the Century, and Cal Ripken, Baltimore's consecutive games Ironman. The museum's popular Second Saturdays program, held the second Saturday of each month, this year will feature guest speakers on such topics as scouting, the Negro Leagues, women in baseball, umpiring and more. The museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars.

Striving to exhibit its growing collections, the Museum plans to expand into a second facility: Camden Station, which is adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Orioles owner Peter Angelos has donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station will feature many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on children's learning areas, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum will continue to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between both sites.

For museum hours, upcoming exhibits and other information, call the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum at 410-727-1539.

ERICKSON'S NO-HITTER

He faced 31 batters retiring 15 on ground balls (1 GIDP), five on fly balls, five on strikeouts and one on a lineout, including four walks and one hit batter. He threw 129 pitches, 71 for strikes. It was the first no-hitter in the 13-year history of the Metrodome and just the second time a pitcher carried a no-hitter into the ninth inning in the Metrodome (Baltimore's Eric Bell went eight innings plus a batter in the 9th on 5/5/87). It was the 11th no-hitter in a domed stadium and just the fourth indoor no-hitter in the AL (two at Seattle Kingdome and one at Toronto Skydome).

MAJOR LEAGUE RECORDS

* Holds major league record for home runs by a shortstop with 345
* Holds the major league record for most years leading league in games, by a shortstop with 12.
* Holds major league record for most consecutive games by a shortstop, 2216.
* Holds major league record for most years playing all of clubs games (15) and most years leading league in games (9).

MOST HOME RUNS EVER BY A SHORTSTOP

All-time Leader: Has hit 345 of his 402 homers as a shortstop, most in major league history ahead of Ernie Banks (277). Passed Banks 7/15/93 at Oriole Park when he homered off Minnesota's Scott Erickson. Banks' mark had stood since he moved to first base from shortstop in '62. The seat in left field where the ball landed is now painted orange to commemorate the achievement.
30 Homers: Is one of six shortstops in major league history to have hit 30 or more homers in a season, along with Ernie Banks, Vern Stephens, Rico Petrocelli, Alex Rodriguez and Nomar Garciaparra.

EXTRA-BASE HITS BY A SHORTSTOP

Passing Honus and Joe: 855 of his 1,017 extra-base hits have come as a shortstop, the highest total in baseball history, as near as we can tell. Honus Wagner had 737 in the years he was primarily a shortstop ('01, '03-'16 with Pittsburgh), and Joe Cronin had 765 in the years he was primarily a shortstop, ('28-'41 with Washington and Boston). A precise statistical breakout is not available, however.
Recalling 1991: His ML-high 85 extra-base hits in '91 have been exceeded by only two other shortstops in history, Robin Yount with 87 in '82 and Alex Rodriguez with 91 in '96...Nomar Garciaparra also had 85 in '97...Cal's 368 total bases were the most in one season by an AL shortstop until '96 when Seattle's Rodriguez matched Banks' all-time mark of 379...Rodriguez set a new ML mark for TB by a shortstop in '98 with 384...Also Cal is one of four shortstops (joining Banks in '58 and '59, Rodriguez in '96 and '98, and Garciaparra in '98) to hit .300+ with 30+ homers and 100+ RBI.

ONLY 10 EVER

Only 10 ever have hit 20 or more home runs in their first 10 full seasons, seven Hall of Famers:

1. Eddie Mathews	14	5. Fred McGriff	11	8. Willie Mays	10
2. Billy Williams	13	6. Joe DiMaggio	10	9. Rocky Colavito	10
3. Reggie Jackson	13	7. Ted Williams	10	10. Cal Ripken	10
4. Frank Robinson	12

STEALS

FIRST STEAL WAS A STEAL OF HOME: Stole home for his first major league steal on the front end of a double steal 5/31/82 at home vs. Texas off Jon Matlack. Lenn Sakata stole second on the play. Jim Sundberg was the catcher. Al Bumbry was at bat. Gave the O's 4-3 lead in eventual 8-7 win.

CAL IN A PINCH

AS A PINCH HITTER: Has pinch hit five times, most recently in the second game of a doubleheader on June 8, 1999 at Florida, when he singled replacing Mike Timlin. His previous times as pinch-hitter came in 1981, three times for Mark Belanger (8/19,8/20,8/22) and once for Eddie Murray (8/30).
AS A PINCH RUNNER: Has pinch run seven times, six in '81, once in '82. Ran twice for Ken Singleton, Terry Crowley, and Doug DeCinces, and once for Benny Ayala. The last time was 4/18/82 for Crowley. Only in his first pinch running experience, in his major league debut 8/10/81, did he score (see major league debut below).

CYCLE: One of only two Orioles to ever hit for the cycle. On 5/6/84, was 4-for-5 with two RBI. Homered off Dave Tobik in his final at bat. Brooks Robinson hit for the cycle at Chicago, 7/15/60. Opponents have hit for the cycle six times against the Orioles.

JAPAN TRIPS: Has a cumulative .358 average (29-81) on three trips to Japan...1984: Was on O's 14-game post-season trip and batted .315 (17-54) with four homers and nine RBI as the O's went 8-5-1...1986: Was part of US Major League All-Star team that went 6-1 against All-Stars from Japan's Central and Pacific Leagues...Cal led that team in batting (.500, 7-14, 2B-2, HR-2, RBI-6) while splitting shortstop duties with the Cardinals' Ozzie Smith...1996: Was on tour of Japan with a group of Major League All-Stars in the off-season...Batted .385 (5-13) with 4 RS, a 2B, a HR and 3 RBI.

ALL-STAR GAMES

17-YEAR ALL-STAR: Ripken's 17 games are all consecutive, 14 were at shortstop with the last three being at third base. Ozzie Smith, named in '96 for the 15th time, is the major league leader among shortstops, one ahead of Cal. The previous AL mark belonged to former Oriole Luis Aparicio. Only Brooks Robinson (AL record 18 games in 15 straight years, '60-'74) has represented the Orioles at more All-Star Games. The only year Ripken did not make the team was his rookie (of the year) season in 1982.

ELECTED: 15 times, 11 consecutive starting in '89. In 1999, matched Rod Carew's record for most All-Star selections with 15. Cal was also elected '84 thru '87. Alan Trammell was elected in '88 (but withdrew due to injury so Cal, who finished second in the voting, started in his place). Since balloting returned to the fans in '70, ten different Orioles have been elected to start 31 times in the 30 years. Although the Orioles had four players named to the All-Star Game in '99, Cal was the only to start.

STARTER: 16 straight years (starting '84), 13 as shortstop. Cal's 15th straight start in 1998 set an All-Star Game record, breaking Willie Mays' mark of 14 straight ASG starts.

FAN BALLOTING: Has led the majors in votes four times: '85 (1,398,901), '86 (1,486,806), '92 (2,699,773), and '95 (1,698,524)...Cal led the AL in balloting in 1986 (1,486,806).

THE GAMES

1999: Matched Rod Carew's record with his 15th All-Star selection...Went 1-for-1 with a run, RBI and HBP at Fenway Park in Boston.

1998: Set All-Star Game record with his 15th consecutive starts, surpassing Willie Mays' 14 starts in a row...Was his 2nd start at 3B...Went 1-for-4 with a 2-run double at Coors Field in Colorado.

1997: Started his 14th straight All-Star Game, 1st as a third baseman...Went 1-2 in AL victory at Jacobs Field.

1995: At the Mid-Summer Classic in Arlington, TX, Cal went 2-for-3 with singles off Philadelphia's Tommy Greene and Montreal's Carlos Perez.

1994: Played the entire 10-inning game at Pittsburgh, going 1-for-5. In the bottom of the 10th, relayed Albert Belle's throw to Ivan Rodriguez beautifully, just barely later than Tony Gwynn's arrival at home with the "sudden death" winning run.

1993: In the classic at Camden Yards, Cal was 0-for-3 with two groundouts and a strikeout, but received what was probably the loudest ovation in the park's history when he was introduced as the starting shortstop by Chuck Thompson.

1992: Had an RBI single off Atlanta's Tom Glavine in three trips at San Diego to help the AL win, 13-6.

MVP 1991: Became the fourth of five Orioles to win the All-Star Game MVP Award when, on 7/9 at Toronto's SkyDome, he hit a three-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and singled off the eventual Cy Young Award winner, Tom Glavine, to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Other Orioles All-Star MVP's: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks ('66), Frank ('71) and Roberto Alomar ('98)...Cal became only the third AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game home run, joining Dick McAuliffe ('65) and Lou Boudreau ('42)...In the home run hitting contest the day before, hit an incredible 12 home runs in 22 swings to lead the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL.

1990: Made his 7th consecutive start at shortstop, an A.L. record...Joe Cronin also made 7 starts at shortstop, not consecutive...Went 0-for-2 in his only appearance ever at venerable Wrigley Field, and was only 3-for-20 in 8 All-Star appearances at this point.

1989: Made a club-record 6th straight All-Star Game start, going 1-for-3 with a double off Montreal's Tim Burke in the game at Anaheim...Brooks Robinson started 5 straight All-Star contests at 3B, 1964-68.

1988: Finished 2nd in All-Star voting to Alan Trammell but took the injured Tiger's place in the starting line-up, his 5th straight start...Went 0-for-3 at Cincinnati.

1987: Started at shortstop and had the 2nd highest vote total among A.L. All-Stars behind 3B Wade Boggs...Went 1-for-2, getting his 2nd All-Star hit on a single off the Cubs' Rick Sutcliffe in the game at Oakland.

1986: Received more votes than any AL All-Star for the 2nd straight year and was exceeded only by the Mets' Darryl Strawberry...Went 0-for-4 and struck out twice - his first All-Star K's - at the Astrodome.

1985: Was top vote-getter among AL All-Stars and earned his 2nd start at shortstop...Singled off Nolan Ryan for his 1st All-Star hit, finishing 1-for-3 at Minnesota.

1984: Earned his 1st All-Star start and became the first Oriole to start for the A.L. since 1981...With his father, Cal Sr., selected as a bullpen coach for the A.L., they were believed to be the first father-son duo ever on the same All-Star squad...He went 0-for-3 in the game at San Francisco's Candlestick Park.

1983: Selected as a reserve for his first All-Star Game, he played the final 4 innings at shortstop and walked in his only plate appearance at Chicago's old Comiskey Park.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Married to the former Kelly Geer (11/13/87)...Kelly, from Cockeysville, MD, is a graduate of Dulaney High School and the University of Maryland...Two children: Rachel Marie (11/22/89) and Ryan Calvin (7/26/93), born on an Orioles off day.
THE RIPKEN FAMILY: Cal played with his brother Bill at second base for 5-1/2 seasons (7/11/87 through '92), and Bill was with the Orioles in a utility role in 1996...Also played parts of 12 seasons with his father in an O's uniform as a coach and manager...All three were together in '87, when Cal Sr. became the first father ever to manage two sons simultaneously in major league baseball history (regular season)...In addition to younger brother Bill, Cal has another brother, Fred, and a sister, Ellen Leigh...Cal's mother is named Vi.

FATHER: Cal Ripken Sr. passed away March 25, 1999 from cancer. He spent 15 years on the O's coaching staff starting in 1976, 13-1/2 as 3rd base coach...Managed for 14+ seasons in professional baseball, all in the Orioles' organization...His 13+ years as a manager in the Birds' farm system ('61-'74) represent the longest tenure of any minor league skipper in Orioles' history...During that span Cal managed at all levels except rookie league...Earned the reputation as perhaps the best teacher of young players in Orioles history...Following the '86 season he replaced Earl Weaver to become only the seventh non-interim manager in the club's history...Was replaced by Frank Robinson on 4/12/88 after the O's lost the first six games of the season (a streak that went to 21 before it ended)...Rip was a catcher in the O's organization, although he also played some third base and outfield and even pitched...He enjoyed his best year under Weaver at Fox Cities (Appleton, WI) in '60...He became a player-manager the following year...In '96 he was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame...Following Ripken's death during spring training last year, the Orioles players and field staff wore a "7" on their uniform sleeve in his honor for the entire 1999 season...The number also was painted in orange in the third base coach's box at Camden Yards, where it remained throughout the '99 season as well.

Only 11 errors combined: In '90, Cal and Bill accounted for a total of only 11 errors, the fewest in major league history by a qualifying (each playing 2/3 of their club's games at their respective positions) keystone combination. Next lowest total is 13 in '90 by Toronto's Tony Fernandez and Manny Lee...On 6/15/89, vs. New York, the two Ripkens teamed up on a triple play against the Yankees, the first by the Orioles in more than 10 years.

Both homered: On 9/15/90 at Toronto, Cal and Bill each homered...They matched the feat on 5/28/96 at Seattle and Cal homered three times in that game...They were the first brothers to homer in the same game since Graig (NY) and Jim Nettles (Det) did it 9/14/74.

IN THE COMMUNITY

Cal supports the community actively and in a variety of ways, including the establishment of The Kelly and Cal Ripken, Jr. Foundation which primarily supports community adult and family literacy, youth recreational and health-related programs in the greater Baltimore area. The Baltimore Reads Ripken Learning Center: In 1988, Cal and his wife, Kelly, made a financial contribution in helping to establish The Ripken Learning Center, an adult and family literacy program, in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc. The Baltimore Reads Ripken Learning Center is a full service model adult literacy program providing instruction in reading, math, writing and computer training and basic life skills, counseling and job readiness to over 300 city adults a year. Since inception, Cal and Kelly have contributed or helped raise over $1 million for the Baltimore Reads Ripken Learning Center. This includes the November '91 Winterfest for Literacy and the annual Reading, Runs and Ripken program. Winterfest for Literacy: A sports memorabilia show in Baltimore hosted by Cal that featured Cal, Sr., Bill Ripken, Kirby Puckett, Eddie Murray, Jim Palmer and Brooks Robinson. Also in '91, Cal, in conjunction with Baltimore Reads, Inc., introduced the Reading, Runs and Ripken program. This is an annual fundraising program for Baltimore Reads, Inc. in which individuals and businesses make pledges based on the number of RBIs Cal has during a season. In addition, the Foundation donated $250,000 to other literacy programs with Cal's '97 The Only Way I Know nationwide book tour. Baltimore School for the Arts: Kelly and the Foundation continue to host and support the school's annual presentation of the Nutcracker ballet. Because We Care: Cal, through the Foundation, continues to donate tickets to every Orioles home game, a program he and Eddie Murray initiated in the mid-1980s. Kelly G. Ripken Program: In '98, the Foundation made a $250,000 donation to establish the Kelly G. Ripken Program, a resource for thyroid education and patient care at Johns Hopkins. Sam Hulett Fund: In '92, Cal and Kelly made a donation of $50,000 to the Johns Hopkins Children's Center towards the establishment of the Sam Hulett Fund in memory of the son of Orioles infielder Tim Hulett. Cal has participated in Pam Shriver's Tennis Challenge in '90, '93 and '95. The Challenge benefits the Baltimore Community Foundation. He continues to support the Tennis Challenge with contributions to their annual silent auction. Cal also takes part in the Orioles annual FanFest during the winter.

For the past two years, Cal has operated several baseball camps for kids and adults. The Ripken-Nomo International Baseball Camp, operated jointly with Tigers pitcher Hideo Nomo, has allowed more than 220 children to learn skills from major league players in Hawaii during the December holiday season. Cal and his brother, Bill, also run camps each summer in various American League cities. Cal's Cactus League, an adult baseball vacation in Peoria, AZ, has drawn more than 100 adults for five days of baseball and other fun.

On January 26, 2000 in a ceremony at the Maryland State House in Annapolis, Ripken announced his commitment of more than $9 million in funding for a 6,000-seat stadium and youth baseball complex that will bear his name in his hometown of Aberdeen, MD. The $25 million project, scheduled for completion in 2002, will be home to the new Aberdeen team in the independent Atlantic League and will be the future home for Babe Ruth League Baseball's Cal Ripken Division (12 years old and under). The complex will include six baseball fields, recreational facilities, dormitories and a dining hall to foster teaching of "the Ripken way" of baseball instruction.

2131: PASSING A LEGEND

FACTS & FIGURES ABOUT LOU GEHRIG'S AND CAL RIPKEN'S STREAKS

* On 8/17/33, New York Yankees first baseman Lou Gehrig played in his 1,308th straight game to surpass Everett Scott's major league record for consecutive games played. The Iron Horse went on to play in 2,130 straight games before the crippling effects of ALS (amyotrophic lateral sclerosis) ended his once-thought impossible streak. Just over two years later, ALS ended his life.
* Ripken's streak began on 5/30/82 when manager Earl Weaver started Cal as the third baseman against Toronto at Memorial Stadium. The day before, Floyd Rayford started in Cal's place at third base in the second game of a DH.
* Gehrig holds the major league record for most home runs by a first baseman (493). Ripken holds the record for most home runs by a shortstop (353).
* Gehrig's longest streak at first base was 885 straight games. He played left field for one game in '30 while Babe Ruth pitched, and he played right field for one game in '31 while Ruth played first base.
* Gehrig played every inning of every game one time in his career ('31). Ripken holds what is believed to be the major league record with a streak of 8,243 straight innings, spanning 904 games from '82-'87.
* Gehrig missed just two starts during his streak, both in the first year: '25 (7/5, the 33rd game of the streak and 7/19, the 48th game). Both times, Fred Merkle, renowned for a miscue with the Cubs two decades earlier, was the Yankees' starter at first base. Gehrig started the last 2082 games of his streak.
* Twice during his streak, Gehrig was ailing and listed as the shortstop in the lead-off position. Both times, he singled and was immediately replaced by a pinch runner.
* In the last 100 games of his streak, Gehrig batted .287 (106-369) with 67 runs, 15 doubles, four triples, 16 homers and 82 RBI. In his last 25 games, Gehrig

Three times by Ejection: The earliest Cal has left were the two games from which he was ejected in the first inning: 9/25/87 by Tim Welke (vs. Yankees) and 8/7/89 by Drew Coble (vs. Minnesota). In both cases he was thrown out after arguing a strike call. He was ejected a third time on 7/20/97 in the 2nd inning by Al Clark (vs. Chicago) also for arguing a third strike call.

LONGEST O'S STREAKS: The three longest Orioles streaks before Cal's were:

Brooks Robinson	463
Eddie Murray	444
Billy Gardner	361

EVERY GAME OF THE YEAR: Cal is one of seven Orioles to have played every game in a season.

Cal Ripken	15 Times	'83 thru '97
Brooks Robinson	4 Times	'61, '62, '64, '68
Eddie Murray	4 Times	'78, '79, '84, '88
B.J. Surhoff	Twice	'98, '99
Billy Gardner	Once	'57
Bobby Grich	Once	'73
Rafael Palmeiro	Once	'98

CONSECUTIVE INNINGS STREAK, '82-'87: His streak of 8,243 straight innings (spanning 904 games, '82-'87) is believed to be the longest of its kind in major league history. The post-season innings he played in '83 are not included in these figures. Lou Gehrig, incidentally, played every inning of every game only one season ('31) during his streak.

The start: Cal's innings streak began 6/5/82; six days and five games after the start of his consecutive games string 5/30.

The finish: The innings streak ended 9/14/87 in Toronto when Orioles manager Cal Ripken Sr. inserted Ron Washington at shortstop in the bottom of the eighth of an 18-3 Toronto walkover...That was the game in which the Blue Jays hit a major league record 10 home runs...Rip, whose innings streak covered some five seasons, was the first to have played every inning for at least two straight years since Rudy York with the Tigers in '40-'41...In addition to Cal & Freeman, only one other major leaguer has played every inning at least three years (not necessarily consecutive), Mickey Vernon in '42, '47, & '53...The only other Oriole to play every inning in one season was Eddie Murray in '84 (including 3 games as DH).

CLOSE CALLS DURING THE STREAK

April 10, 1985...Game 444...Sprained left ankle at shortstop during a pickoff play in the third inning vs. Texas (did not come out of the game)...X-rays taken after the game at Greater Baltimore Medical Center were negative...Didn't play the next day in the club's exhibition game at the US Naval Academy, but was in the lineup the next night vs. Toronto.

September 11, 1992...Game 1713...Suffered a twisted right ankle running out a double against the Brewers (did not come out of the game), and as a precaution the Orioles recalled shortstop Manny Alexander from AAA Rochester...Cal didn't miss so much as an inning for another week.

June 6, 1993...Game 1790...Suffered a twisted right knee when his spikes caught in the infield grass during O's-Mariners melee...Though he didn't come out of the game, the knee was swollen and painful the next day...Still, he didn't even miss infield practice...He said later, "It was the closest I've come to not playing."

August 2, 1997...Game 2423...Considered leaving the game in the bottom of the 1st at Oakland with lower back pain when Athletics' Scott Brosius led off the inning with a single on a swinging bunt roller...He remained in the game and singled in his next at-bat and homered the next day as the back steadily improved.

BULLISH ON CAL

Cal's streak spanned 17 seasons. Over that time, the leading index of the New York Stock Exchange, the Dow Jones Average, rose more than 7,000 points, from 819.54 to 7,895.66.

THE ORIOLES IN 1999

OUT OF THE BLOCK: After an Opening Day win, the Orioles dropped 14 of their next 17 and were 8.5 games out of first on April 25. It marked the O's 2nd worst start in club history, behind the 1988 team that began the season 0-21. The Birds did not win a series until taking 2 of 3 from Minnesota, April 30 - May 2 and did not win consecutive games until winning 5 straight, May 2-7.

STREAKY: The Orioles had 5 winning streaks of 5 games or more in 1999 and 4 losing streaks of 6 games or more. The Birds matched the 2nd longest winning streak in franchise history, winning 13 straight games, September 7-22. The Orioles' streak was the longest winning streak in the American League in 1999, and 2nd longest in the majors, behind San Diego's 14-game winning streak, June 18-July 2. They also matched the 2nd longest road winning streak in club history by taking 10 straight away from home, August 29-September 24. Conversely, the Orioles suffered a 10-game losing streak, June 23 - July 3, the 8th losing streak of 10 games or more in club history.

THE ELUSIVE .500: The Orioles' win on Opening Day marked the only time in 1999 they were above .500. After their win in the opener, the Birds dropped the next three and would fall to a season-low 17 games below .500 with a 34-51 record on July 9. Shortly after a 13-game winning streak in September, the Orioles twice flirted within a game of .500, before losing 6 of the final 7 games to finish with a 78-84 record.

GETTING OFFENSIVE: The Orioles set club records in 1999 for the highest team average (.279) and most hits in a season (1,572), both previously set in 1996. The O's matched the club record with 299 doubles, also set in 1996. The Orioles hit 203 home runs, the 2nd straight year and 4th time in club history they have hit over 200 home runs. The Birds had 3 games of 20 hits or more in 1999, including the 2nd and 3rd highest hit totals in their history, with 25 hits on June 13 at Atlanta and 24 hits on May 16 at Texas.

PITCHING: In the first half, the Orioles were 10th in the American League with a 5.23 ERA. They pitched to a 4.24 ERA in the second half to finish 4th in the AL with a 4.77 ERA. After having a 6.49 ERA in April, the O's staff combined for a 4.50 ERA for the remainder of the season...Starters: Orioles starters went 61-57 with a 4.71 ERA. Over the last 108 games of the year, they went 46-33 with a 4.21 ERA and 55 Quality Starts (6 or more IP, 3 or fewer runs), including 14 complete games...Relievers: Orioles relievers went 17-27 with a 4.91 ERA and 33 saves in 58 opportunities. Relievers allowed runs in 89 of the 145 games they appeared in 1999.

A TALE OF TWO BULLPENS: The Orioles bullpen went 9-19 with a 5.91 ERA with 14 saves in 34 opportunities in the first half. In the second half, they went 8-8 with a 3.76 ERA and 19 saves in 24 opportunities. RHP Mike Timlin went 3-8 with a 5.06 ERA and 9 saves in 17 attempts before the break, but went 0-1 with a 1.40 ERA and 18 saves in 19 attempts in the second half.

FIELDING: For the second straight year and 4th time in the last six seasons, the Orioles led the American League in fielding. They had a .986 fielding percentage and committed a league-low 89 errors. Mike Bordick led AL shortstops in fielding percentage and total chances. B.J. Surhoff did not commit an error and led all AL outfielders in fielding, while Brady Anderson was third among outfielders with a .997 fielding percentage. Albert Belle tied for the league-lead with 17 outfield assists and Surhoff was tied for second with 16 outfield assists.

THOU SHALL NOT RUN: Orioles catchers combined to throw out 48 of 133 (36.1%) attempted basestealers in 1999. Charles Johnson threw out 37 of 93 (39.8%) runners and had only one runner attempt to steal off him in his final 16 games of the season. In 1998, Orioles catchers threw out 53 of 235 (22.5%) attempted basestealers. Orioles catchers held opponents to 93 stolen bases, the lowest total by an opponent in a non-strike shortened season since 1980.

RUN WITH IT: The Orioles stole 107 bases, their highest total since stealing 118 bases in 1989. They finished 5th in the league in stolen base efficiency with a 69.9% success rate (107-153). Brady Anderson was tied for 6th in the AL with 36 stolen bases and Albert Belle was 4th in the league with an 85% success rate (17-20).

Cuba then defeated the Orioles 12-6 in Baltimore on May 3, marking the first time ever that Cuba has played a Major League team on U.S. soil.

BASEBALL'S BEST FANS: The Orioles drew 3,433,150 for 80 home dates, for an average of 42,914, to lead the American League in average attendance for the 5th straight season. Colorado led the majors with an average of 42,976 per game, and only Colorado and Cleveland, who both hosted 81 games, topped the Orioles in total attendance. The 1999 season also saw the Orioles draw the three largest regular season crowds in the eight-year history of Oriole Park at Camden Yards, led by the 48,544 who attended the July 24 game vs. Anaheim. The three largest crowds marked the first regular season games to draw more than 48,500 fans in Camden Yards history.

NUMBER OF PLAYERS: The Orioles used 43 different players in 1999, 22 position players and 21 pitchers, including 11 rookies. Twenty-two players made their first appearance in an Orioles uniform. The Birds have now had 655 different players in their 46-year history.

CAL'S MILESTONES: On September 2, Cal Ripken became the 29th player in major league history to hit 400 home runs. The home run, hit off Tampa Bay's Rolando Arrojo, came in Ripken's second game after returning from the disabled list. Ripken finished the season with 2,991 hits, 9 short of 3,000.

CAL'S NIGHT: On June 13 at Atlanta, Ripken set club records with 6 hits and 5 runs scored and matched his own record for total bases in a game with 13, as he went 6-for-6 with 2 home runs, a double and 3 singles. The Orioles scored a team record 22 runs in the game, and their 25 hits were one shy of the team mark. The rout completed a three-game sweep of the Braves, the Birds second in two trips to Turner Field.

FATHER TIME: Harold Baines collected 4 hits on July 16 against Montreal to tie and pass Hal McRae for most hits by a designated hitter with 1,556. The next night Baines hit his 220th career home run as a DH to pass Don Baylor for the all-time record. On April 14 at New York, he passed McRae for most games played as a DH with his 1,429th game. Baines was also named to the All-Star team for the sixth time, his first selection since 1991.

FATHER TIME, PART II: On August 17 against Minnesota, Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance, passing Dennis Eckersley for most games pitched in major league history. Orosco passed Kent Tekulve on June 25 for most relief appearances with his 1,051st game out of the bullpen. Orosco finished his 5-year tenure with the Orioles 9th on the club's all-time games pitched list with 336 appearances.

ORIOLES ALL-STARS: The Orioles sent 4 players to the All-Star Game in Boston on July 13 – 3B Cal Ripken, RHP Mike Mussina, OF B.J. Surhoff and DH Harold Baines. Ripken had an RBI single and was HBP in his 17th appearance in the Mid-Summer Classic and 16th straight start, while Mussina pitched 1.0 shutout inning, striking out Sammy Sosa and Mark McGwire back-to-back with runners on 2nd and 3rd base. Surhoff made his first All-Star appearance, went 0-for-2, and played the final 6 innings in leftfield, and Harold Baines singled in his only at-bat in his first All-Star Game since 1991.

IRON MEN: The Orioles featured 4 players to play in at least 150 games in 1999 – OF B.J. Surhoff (162), OF Albert Belle (161), SS Mike Bordick and OF Brady Anderson (150). Surhoff played every game for the second consecutive season and owns the majors' longest streak of 324 consecutive games. 1B Jeff Conine (139) and CA Charles Johnson (135) were the only other Orioles to play in over 100 games.

TAKIN' IT TO THE STREET: There were 5 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade in 1999, bringing the 8-year total to 24. Brady Anderson hit his 3rd career Eutaw Street home run on April 29 off Kansas City's Jeff Suppan, and Delino DeShields was the only other Oriole to reach the mark when he homered off Detroit's Brian Moehler on August 8. Sidney Ponson allowed three opponents Eutaw Street home runs in 1999 - to Boston's Troy O'Leary, Cleveland's Jim Thome and Oakland's Matt Stairs.

DOUBLE UP: The Orioles had 4 games postponed due to rain this year, forcing 4 doubleheader makeups, including 3 at home and 2 in September. In 1998, the Orioles did not have a game postponed for the first time in club history.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: OF B.J. Surhoff was named the winner of the 1999 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by a vote of the media that regularly covers the team. Surhoff batted .308 with 28 home runs and 107 RBI, and his 207 hits were the 3rd highest in club history. He finished among the American League leaders in hits (2nd, 207), multi-hit games (T2nd, 62) and total bases (8th, 331). He was 4th in the league with 15 outfield assists and was the only regular left fielder in the majors who did not commit an error all season.

* Tie games: The Orioles have played 10 tie games, all in Baltimore (one each in '96 and '82, and 8 others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:59 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:59 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect.

Tie games were played against: Chicago-4, Kansas City A's-2, Milwaukee-1, New York-1, Oakland-1 and Texas-1

Legend: 1-includes Los Angeles, '61-'65; and California, '66-'96

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD, PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award) which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to MLB. A local panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services are made up of local community representatives will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Alan H. (Bud) Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

Past winners include Tony Gwynn (1999), Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Kirby Puckett and others.

ORIOLES 1999 MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY

The Orioles' top four minor league affiliates each placed in the top 28 of a 1999 edition of Street & Smith Business Journal's study or minor league fan support. The Frederick Keys were 2nd out of 158 minor league teams in the study, which based the rankings on average attendance, on-field record, area population and stadium capacity. The Delmarva Shorebirds were ranked 21st to lead all South Atlantic League teams, while the Rochester Red Wings finished 21st and the Bowie Baysox as 28th. Following the season, Delmarva won the Merit Award as the South Atlantic League's top overall organization, marking the 2nd time in the last three years they have earned the distinction.

ROCHESTER (AAA)

The Red Wings went 61-85 in 1999 and finished in 5th place in the North Division of the International League, 17.0 games behind Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. Last season marked the most losses by a Rochester team since 1984, when they went 52-88. The Red Wings struggled out of the gate, going 16-42 in May and June before putting together their best month in July, when they went 19-9. Despite their struggles, the Red Wings featured 17 players to spend time both in Rochester and Baltimore. The infield of Calvin Pickering, Jerry Hairston, Jesse Garcia and Ryan Minor played only 6 games together at Rochester, but each spent time on the Orioles roster. Hairston, who had two stints with the Orioles, batted .291 in 107 games with Rochester. He also had a 16-game hitting streak, the longest by a Red Wing in 5 years. Rochester's staff was 2nd in the league with 1,017 strikeouts, and featured two pitchers in the top 8 of the league in ERA - Doug Linton (3.65) and Calvin Maduro (3.99). Maduro led the team with 11 wins and was 2nd in the league with 149 strikeouts and 4th with 169.0 innings pitched. Gabe Molina, who spent three stints with the Orioles, converted 18 of 21 save opportunities on the year, including 14 straight to end the season.

BOWIE (AA)

After spending most of the 1999 season near the top of the standings, the Baysox dropped14 of their final 18 games to finish 70-71 and in 4th place in the Southern Division of the Eastern League, 10 ½ games behind Erie. Bowie was over .500 from April 13 to September 2 before falling below the break-even mark with 2 games remaining on their schedule. The Baysox featured the organization's top pitching prospect, Matt Riley, for most of the season and he went 10-6 with a 3.22 ERA in 20 games after joining the team in May. Riley was named to the Eastern League's postseason All-Star team, was selected but did not play in the AA All-Star Game, and participated in the Futures Game. Ryan Kohlmeier finished T2nd in the league with 23 saves, one short of Gabe Molina's club record set in 1998. Organizational Player of the Year Wady Almonte batted .293 and led the Baysox with 17 home runs, 83 RBI and 13 outfield assists. Rick Short played 5 different positions, finished 6th in the league with a .314 average and had 3 separate hitting streaks of 11 games or more.

FREDERICK (A)

The Keys went a combined 67-71 in 1999, 37-33 in the first half and 30-38 in the second half, and finished both halves in 2nd place in the Northern Division of the Carolina League. Frederick led the league with a .264 average and 171 stolen bases, including 6 players with at least 10 stolen bases. After getting off to a slow start, Darnell McDonald batted .299 over his final 90 games of the season. He led the Keys with 81 runs and was 3rd on the team with 26 stolen bases and 73 RBI while primarily batting leadoff over the final 3 months of the season. Frederick featured 3 players - Eddy Martinez, Jayson Werth and Luis Matos - on the Carolina League All-Star Team, with Martinez also named to the league's Postseason All-Star Team. Matt Riley and Carlos Medina combined to go 7-2 with a 2.28 ERA before each being sent to Bowie in May. Rick Bauer led the Keys with 10 wins and tied for the league lead with 4 complete games.

DELMARVA (A)

After going 26-44 in the first half, the Shorebirds improved their second half record to 32-26 to finish the 1999 season 58-70. Delmarva hovered near the top of the standings for most of the second half before losing 9 of their final 13 games to finish in 3rd place in the Northern Division of the South Atlantic League, 4 ½ game behind Cape Fear. The Shorebirds had 10 players from the 1999 First Year Player Draft on their roster, including 4 of the Orioles' 7 first round and sandwich selections. Matthew Riordan led all newcomers with a .289 average, while fellow draftee Larry Bigbie batted .279 with a .381 on-base percentage. Organizational Pitcher of the Year John Stephens led the league with 217 strikeouts and set a club record with 17 strikeouts in a game. Aaron Rakers went 4-1 with 8 saves and a 1.42 ERA in 18 games with the Shorebirds. The Shorebirds also led the league in attendance for the 4th consecutive season, averaging 4,290 per game.

BLUEFIELD (ROOKIE)

Bluefield went 25-43 in 1999 and finished in 3rd place of the East Division of the Appalachian League 15.0 games behind Martinsville. Rick Elder spent most of the season at Bluefield and hit .329 with 10 home runs and 40 RBI in 40 games with the Orioles. GRAND SLAM NOTES

ORIOLES LEAD MAJORS SINCE '80: The Orioles have belted 100 grand slams starting in 1980, more than any other team ...Boston is next with 90, followed by Seattle with 88.

THRU THE YEARS: The O 's have out-slammed their opponents, 187-129, over the last 46 years (including post-season) ...They have a 99-58 advantage in Baltimore, 24-17 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record 3 grand slams on Aug. 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit 4th inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the 5th time in history one club has hit 2 grand slams in an inning. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam. Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987.

TWO IN ONE GAME: Only 10 major leaguers have hit 2 grand slams in the same game, and three times it has been done by an Oriole. Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on Aug. 14, 1998 at Cleveland, connecting in the 3rd and 8th innings. Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among 4 players who have done it in consecutive at bats. Gentile hit slams in the 1st and 2nd innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961. Robinson did it in the 5th and 6th innings at Washington on June 26, 1970.

GENTILE HIT 5 IN '61: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit 5 bases loaded homers in '61. The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with 6 grand slams in '87.

POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only 2 major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in '70 with the Orioles. Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota). McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds ' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar 's slam was the first in LCS history.

OPPONENTS: The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds ...The '78 O's allowed slams in 3 straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee ...The '93 O's did it Aug. 10-12, all at Detroit ...Ken Griffey Jr. last year became the 10th opposing player to have hit 2 career grand slams against the Orioles ... Griffey and Edgar Martinez are the only active players with 2 slams ... Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up 2 grand slams against the Orioles and the 3rd to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago 's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1955).

GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up 6 bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most an any O 's hurler. Pappas gave up 9 overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for most career grand slams allowed ...Dave McNally and Scott McGregor are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing 4 apiece (Armando Benitez also allowed 4 grand slams, including one in post-season play) ...Among current O 's hurlers, Mike Mussina has given up 3 slams ...On the other hand, Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS/LOSERS VS. O'S

WINNERS: Yankees Hall of Famer Whitey Ford, who retired in 1967, has beaten the Orioles more than any other pitcher. He was 30-16 against the Birds and was one of 13 pitchers to have posted 20 or more wins lifetime against the O's. The others: "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Bert Blyleven (20-14), Frank Tanana (21-17), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant and Jim Perry (both 20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23). Among active hurlers, Mark Langston (17-10) has the most wins against the Orioles, followed by Roger Clemens (16-10), Jaime Navarro (11-6 after going 0-3 in 1999), Bret Saberhagen (11-9), Charles Nagy (10-6) and Jack McDowell (10-8).

LOSERS: Hunter, the 2nd biggest lifetime winner vs. Baltimore, also is the biggest lifetime loser (24 losses)...At one time, Catfish had a 23-16 mark vs. the O's but lost 8 of his last 11 decisions against them from '76 thru '79...There have been 4 other 20-game losers vs. the Orioles: Tiant and Perry (22 each), Kaat and Fritz Peterson (14-21)...Three pitchers lost 19 games to the O's: Lolich, Gaylord Perry (12-19) and Sam McDowell (9-19)...Nolan Ryan finished 10-17 vs. Baltimore. NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although they have not had one in the past 15 seasons, Oriole pitchers had produced 24 20-win seasons in the past 32 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (14), Yankees (12), White Sox (11) and Dodgers (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time.

From '68 thru '80, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major lealgue record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from '03 to '14, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within 6 days: Dave McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (9/24 -first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (9/24 -2nd game), and Jim Palmer (9/26).

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/20) in '75.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club 's first 14 seasons in Baltimore ('54 thru '67), was lefthander Steve Barber in '63.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, '93, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases on an inside-the-park home run, off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. It was the first ever hit in the new park and the first by a visiting player in Baltimore since 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher on August 17.

The Orioles haven't had an inside-the-park homer to call their own since June 8, '90 when outfielder Phil Bradley did it at Memorial Stadium...He victimized the Yankees' Greg Cadaret. Bradley 's homer was the 11th and final inside-the-park job at Memorial Stadium (10th by an Oriole) and the first for the O 's at home since his childhood baby sitter, Al Bumbry, hit one off the Yankees' Steve Kline, April 19, '74.

Bradley 's blast remains the only Oriole inside-the-park homer, home or away, since Bumbry did it against Jesse Jefferson of the White Sox at old Comiskey Park, August 21, '76.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 11 triple plays and hit into 16 in 46 seasons.

The last triple play pulled by the Orioles came August 25, '92 at Oriole Park at Camden Yards against California...With Tim Salmon on 3rd and Chad Curtis on 1st, Gary Gaetti lined out to O 's 3B Leo Gomez, who stepped on the bag to catch Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligan to triple up Curtis. That is the only triple play turned in by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

On the other hand, the O 's have hit into 2 triple plays at Camden Yards. The most recent TP involving the Orioles came April 3, '96, against Kansas City at Oriole Park at Camden Yards, when O's DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at 3rd and Rafael Palmeiro at 1st, Bonilla grounded to Royals 3B Joe Randa, who threw to 2B Bip Roberts for the force on Palmeiro. Roberts threw to 1B Bob Hamelin to get Bonilla, at which point Alomar tried to score from 3rd. Hamelin's throw to CA Sal Fasano was in time to nail Alomar to end the inning.

NOTES: The Gold Glove Awards were initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Co. in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league...Selection is based on a player 's overall defensive ability, not simply on fielding percentage.

In 1999, Mike Mussina won his fourth straight Gold Glove Award, giving the Orioles 8 Gold Gloves in the last four seasons after earning only two in the previous 11 years ...The Orioles have won a total of 58 Gold Gloves, more than any other team since the awards were created...The St. Louis Cardinals have won 57 1/2.

Totals for each team: ORIOLES 58, Cardinals 57 1/2, Yankees 50, Reds 45, Pirates 44, Red Sox, Tigers, Phillies & White Sox 34, Braves 33, Giants 32, Cubs 31, Dodgers 30 1/2, Twins 28, Angels 26, Indians & Rangers 23, Expos 20, Blue Jays 18, Padres 17, Mariners 17, Astros & Royals 16, A 's 14, Mets 13 1/2, Brewers 9, Marlins 3 1/2, Rockies 3.

Multiple Winners: A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves...Leading the list is Brooks Robinson, whose 16 awards are matched only by pitcher Jim Kaat for the most won by an individual (Roberto Clemente & Willie Mays are tied for 3rd with 12 each; Ozzie Smith won 11)...Other Oriole multiple winners: Paul Blair & Mark Belanger (8 each); Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich & Mike Mussina (4 each); Davey Johnson & Eddie Murray (3 each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro & Cal Ripken (2 each, although Aparicio won a total of 9 in his ML career and Alomar has won 8).

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES, '54 - '99

The Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award is presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland, Inc. In 1999, left fielder B.J. Surhoff was a near-unanimous selection as the Orioles' MVP, becoming the 28th different player to win the award in the club's 46 seasons. Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3) and Rafael Palmeiro (3) are the only players to win the award more than twice.

The Sports Boosters initiated the MVO award when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. Several years ago, they renamed the award in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years.

The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994.

Winners by position: outfielders-15; first basemen-14; pitchers-9; third basemen-4; shortstops-4; catchers-2; and second basemen-1.

ALL-STAR NOTES

FOUR FOR '99: The Orioles sent four players to the 1999 All-Star Game played at Boston 's Fenway Park in 1999...Cal Ripken started at 3B and was joined by reserves B.J. Surhoff and Harold Baines and pitcher Mike Mussina...It was Ripken 's 17th All-Star appearance, Baines' 6th, Mussina's 5th and Surhoff 's first selection to an All-Star squad.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: Ten different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken has started the last 16 years, 15 of those by fan vote...Last year was his third start at 3B...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy and Brady Anderson (1 each).

ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: Roberto Alomar earned the 1998 All-Star MVP award at Denver 's Coors Field with a 3-4 performance including a HR and a stolen base in the American League 's 13-8 win ...Alomar, Cal Ripken and Rafael Palmeiro combined for 6 hits, the most by teammates since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1976...Alomar 's was the 5th All-Star MVP won by an Oriole player. The others: Cal Ripken won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto 's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL. Frank Robinson 's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL 's 1st All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983. Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the 1st player from a losing team to be so honored. Billy O 'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in Baltimore in 1958.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Roberto Alomar 's home run in 1998 was the 5th by an Oriole in All-Star play, joining Cal Ripken (7/9/91 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on), Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); and Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th mid-season classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993.

On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 46,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game.

In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball 's first-ever "All-Star Week," including the AL 's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game.

FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration. Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout. Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles last advanced to post-season play in '97, reaching for the 2nd straight season, the first time they've made back-to-back post-season appearances since 1973-74...For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series. In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1 in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS. In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

The O's won the 1st 10 ALCS games they played (including the 1st 9 ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69- '70) and the A's ('71) in the 1st 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year.

WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in games (19-14). The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away.

2000 HALL OF FAME WEEKEND

Induction Ceremony: Sunday, July 23	2:30 PM, Clark Sports Center
Hall of Fame Game: Monday, July 24	2:00 PM, Doubleday Field

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Oriole personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles and must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Herbert E. Armstrong Award: The Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee also selects winners of the Herbert E. Armstrong Award, presented annually to non-uniformed personnel who have distinguished themselves in their service to the Orioles. The Armstrong Award was established in 1995 in honor of the beloved former educator, professional baseball player and manager and longtime official for both the Orioles ' International League and American League clubs, who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown.

MARTINEZ, WATT AND DUNN III ARE 2000 ELECTEES TO O'S HALL

Tippy Martinez and Eddie Watt, who rank second and fifth on the Orioles all-time saves list, respectively, along with former front office executive Jack Dunn III are the newest members to the Orioles Hall of Fame. Martinez was elected through a vote of the Hall of Fame Committee and its 80 electors. Watt and Dunn were each elected in a vote by the Hall's veterans committee, with Dunn receiving the Herbert E. Armstrong Award for non-uniformed personnel.

Martinez went 52-40 with 105 saves and a 3.46 ERA during his 11-year career with the Orioles. Watt, a member of 4 pennant winning teams with the Orioles from 1966 to 1973, ranks 3rd on the clubs' all-time list with a 2.73 ERA and 6th with 363 appearances. Dunn served as owner, general manager and manager of the International League Orioles and held several front office positions with the major league Orioles, including Vice President of Business Affairs:

The election of Martinez, Watt and Dunn bring Orioles Hall of Fame membership to 41 people:

NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Lee MacPhail 's election to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Veteran's committee in 1998 brought to 10 the number of modern Orioles who have been enshrined at Cooperstown. During his long and meritorious career in baseball, MacPhail served as general manager and later president and GM of the Orioles from 1958 through 1965. He later served as president of the American League.

There are four modern Orioles enshrined in the Hall of Fame wearing Oriole hats for their official busts/portraits: Earl Weaver, Jim Palmer, and Brooks and Frank Robinson. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for their biographies and statistics.)

Palmer, the Robinsons and Reggie Jackson all were selected in their first year of eligibility for the Hall. They are 4 of only 29 first-ballot electees among the 240 Hall of Fame members (not including this year 's Veteran 's committee vote). Palmer poled 92.6% of the total vote (411of 444 ballots cast) in 1990, the highest percentage ever by an Oriole.

The Hall of Fame honored another beloved Oriole in 1993 when veteran O's broadcaster Chuck Thompson was the recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. And in 1998, Sam Lacy, long-time sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

In addition, there are six members of the 1890s Orioles juggernaut immortalized in the Hall of Fame.

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers to have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles general manager; the late Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox coached one year under Birds' Manager Billy Hitchcock; and the late Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, scouted for the Orioles from '60 thru '71.

Notes: John McGraw had a .334 lifetime batting average in 16 big league seasons but was elected to the Hall of Fame primarily because of his achievements as a manager. The same is true of his buddy, Wilbert Robinson. Rube Marquard pitched only 30 innings for the Orioles, all in '27.

Baltimore-born Babe Ruth signed his first pro contract with Jack Dunn Sr. in '14, and made his professional debut with the IL Orioles that year as a pitcher. Chief Bender was based in Baltimore twice. He pitched both for the '27 Orioles (G-18, W-6 L-3) and the '15 Baltimore Terrapins (W-4, L-16) in the ill-fated Federal League.

Other native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame include "Home Run Baker" (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), and 4 others who never played for the Orioles: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), and Vic Willis (Elkton), who was elected in 1995.

THE HISTORY OF THE ORIOLES

What do Black Sox, Elite Giants, Marylands, Monumentals, Orioles and Terrapins all have in common? They're all nicknames for professional baseball teams that have played in the city of Baltimore, dating back to the game's 19th century roots.

Baltimore first experienced professional baseball in 1872, when the Lord Baltimores played their inaugural games in the old National Association. Ten years later, another incarnation of the Lord Baltimores made its debut in the American Association; one year after that, the franchise adopted the name "Orioles", honoring Maryland's state bird. It was the first time the nickname would become affiliated with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

In 1884, the Orioles encountered some intra-city competition when the Baltimore Monumentals became one of the charter franchises in the new Union Association. By midseason, the Monumentals had transferred to Lancaster; and by the end of one year, the new league was done.

Although both the American and National Associations have come to be regarded as major league by baseball historians, Baltimore stepped up a notch further when it joined the National League in 1892. Spearheaded by the skilled batting of Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley and Willie Keeler, and the scrappy play of Hughie Jennings and John McGraw, the Orioles of the 1890s played an aggressive, fire-breathing kind of baseball never seen before. Under the direction of the innovative Ned Hanlon, the Orioles won three consecutive National League pennants from 1894 to 1896.

In spite of their success, Baltimore's National League franchise lasted for only eight seasons, folding after the 1899 campaign. Within two years, Baltimore baseball found a new home -in the upstart American League. Once again adopting the nickname Orioles, the franchise played for two seasons before relocating to New York. First playing as the Highlanders, the former Baltimore club eventually became the New York Yankees.

The transfer of the franchise to New York left Baltimore without a major league team until 1914. The Baltimore Terrapins, named for the varieties of edible turtles common to the state of Maryland, entered the newly formed Federal League that season. Alas, the league, and its franchises, lasted just the one year. Baltimore would not enjoy major league baseball for another four decades. Yet, professional baseball did not completely abandon Baltimore. Minor league entries, still playing under the popular name of Orioles, thrived in the Eastern League (1903-11) and the International League (1912-53). During the early years of Baltimore's existence in the International League, a young left-handed pitcher named Babe Ruth starred for the team. Ruth split the 1914 season between Baltimore and Providence, winning a combined 22 games and losing only nine.

From the 1920s through the 1940s, area baseball fans also enjoyed the exploits of the city's two Negro League teams, the Black Sox and Elite Giants. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants-on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

In September of 1953, Bill Veeck's financial problems helped Baltimore land another major league team. Veeck sold his American League franchise, the St. Louis Browns, to a Baltimore-based syndicate headed by Mayor Tommy D'Alesandro and attorney Clarence Miles. Playing in the renovated Memorial Stadium, the new Orioles made their return to the American League in 1954.

In the late 1950s, the Orioles' farm system began to produce a bevy of talent, led by future Hall of Famer Brooks Robinson. With a young nucleus in place, the Orioles sought veteran assistance to complete their championship puzzle. After the 1965 season, the Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds. Led by Robinson's Triple Crown season, the slugging of young first baseman Boog Powell, and the terrific bullpen combination of Moe Drabowsky, Eddie Fisher and Stu Miller, the 1966 Orioles won the first World Series in the franchise's history.

The Orioles returned to American League dominance three years later, with Hall of Fame manager Earl Weaver now leading the charge. Pitching, three-run homers, and outstanding defensive play stamped Weaver's Orioles as winners. From 1969 to 1971, the O's captured three American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series, where Brooks Robinson compiled a highlight reel's worth of defensive brilliance. After some lean years in the middle of the decade, the Orioles returned to glory in 1979, when they extended the Pittsburgh Pirates to seven games before losing the World Series. Four years later, with a new generation of stars headed up Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken, Jr., the Orioles won their third world championship -four games to one against the Philadelphia Phillies.

The endurance and excellence of Ripken served as a hallmark for much of the 1980s and 90s, culminating in the breaking of a baseball legend's record. On the night of September 6, 1995, Ripken played in his 2,131st consecutive game, eclipsing the mark of Hall of Famer Lou Gehrig. The 1990s also saw the Orioles move into a new era, as they departed Memorial Stadium for a ballpark considered a state-of-the-art model for all new stadium projects -Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

EARL WEAVER-4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl ranks 18th in victories among 20th century managers. His .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons -all in Baltimore -ranks 5th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons exclusively in this century.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as 1st base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 AL East titles, 4 AL pennants and 1 World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended 1-game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his year 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Hialeah, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage as well as a stepdaughter.

BROOKS ROBINSON-5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and shares the record (with former pitcher Jim Kaat) for most Gold Gloves with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (his 1st year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He is the Orioles' all-time leader in games and triples, and is second in at bats, hits, runs, doubles, total bases, RBI and extra base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 10th on the all-time list of games played, 3rd in the AL and 4th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

FRANK ROBINSON-20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 4th on the all-time list.

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his 1st season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the 1st to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. He later managed the San Francisco Giants and the Orioles. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

Elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the 1st year he was eligible in 1982, Frank now serves as Vice President, On-Field Operations for Major League Baseball. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

JIM PALMER-22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history. Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won 3 Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season 8 times, one of only 6 who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to do that. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of 3 decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles 1st 4 pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a 6-time All-Star and was the A.L.'s starting pitcher 4 times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the 1st ballot in January, 1990. He is in his 7th season as an analyst and play-by-play broadcaster for Home Team Sports, the Orioles' cable broadcast partner, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Juno Beach, FL. He has 2 daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 48,876 (including standing room) and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray: Rummel, Klepper and Kahl: and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is made up of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below a natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts while shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The PAT system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within half an hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. It automatically removes as many as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour.

The park's deepest point is left of dead center (410') just as Fenway Park's (420') is to the right of the center line. Though it is 15 feet shorter from home plate to the right field corner than down the left field line, that difference is compensated by a 25' high wall which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 432 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

Four public facilities- a souvenir shop (The Official Orioles Team Store, open daily), a cafeteria (Pastimes), a bar/lounge (Bambino's) and Gallery E at the Warehouse, a sports-themed art gallery opened last year- are located on the ground floor of the warehouse and on the 8th floor is the exclusive members-only Camden Club. The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

SCOREBOARDS

There are 2 major electronic information centers in the ballpark to enhance enjoyment of the game. Two big boards are located on the main scoreboard in center field: The Sony JumboTRON video board (22'9" by 31'4") and an equally innovative incandescent lamp matrix game in progress board (24' 1/2" by 78' 1/2") built by Daktronics, Inc. (Brookings, SD) which is located on top of the JumboTRON.

Mounted on top of the 2 boards is a large double-faced clock built in Maryland by Triangle Signs that can be read from both inside the ballpark and in downtown Baltimore. That main scoreboard system also supports 2 weathervane Oriole birds to show players and fans alike the direction of wind flow.

Embedded in the tall right field wall is another electronic board (also built by Daktronics) that provides a good-ole-days feature missing from most current major league ballparks- continuously posted out-of-town scores. It accommodates 16 games at one time posting up-to-the-minute scores via a direct connection with SportsTicker the computerized service that tracks all big league games inning-by-inning. Above the out-of-town board are flag poles which sport the pennants of each American League team in order of their daily standings in each division. There are additionally 3 auxiliary boards for the convenience of those who do not face the 2 big boards in center field.

SEATING

Every aisle seat in the park bears an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and 3rd bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 57'.

The Mezzanine or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas plus many other amenities including the Diamond Club restaurant.

At Club Level also are 72 luxury suites each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites can be leased on a yearly basis from $75,000 to $175,000. In addition, there are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several which hold 10-18 people, and 3 larger party suites which can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1850 bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also 275 standing room only locations that go on sale 2 hours before game time. These areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA) which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

It is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots in walking distance to the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Each year, the Orioles work hard to enhance our fans' "Oriole Park Experience." Among the improvements made this past off-season...

• Work began on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. Some of the painting work will continue into the season.

• The entrance area to the Homeplate Elevator Lobby has been redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes and redesigned elevators.

• The first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street has been redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.

• The fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse has been refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.

• Improvements have been made this season that expand and enhance the ticket reader system the club began using at turnstiles in 1999. This will allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.

• In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B & O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, a number of other exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"...

• Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.

• Homestead Gardens, based in Davidsonville, MD, entered into a partnership with the Orioles starting in 1998 to help beautify Oriole Park and its surrounding grounds with flowers and plants.

• Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.

• The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper and carpeting. The alcove lounges on the Club Level have been named and decorated in themes, providing greater ambiance for fans and making it easier to meet friends at a designated area, such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge" and "MVPs Lounge." Photos and records of each Oriole team beginning in 1954 adorn the corridors. Orioles Hall of Fame banners have been hung outside the party suites in the left field area of the Club Level.

• Smoking was banned from the seating bowl in 1993. It is permitted only on the concourses.

Plaques and other displays around the ballpark honor various athletic accomplishments...

• Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.

• Orioles' Retired Numbers: 4-foot monuments, located at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22) and Eddie Murray (33).

• The Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame: Located on the wall of Sections 1-3 on Eutaw Street, these plaques honor native Marylanders representing more than 30 different sports...The selection committee is comprised of 12 Marylanders with extensive sports backgrounds.

• Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

• Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Ernie Banks' major league record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row FF, Seat 10) with a red seat...The homer came on July 15, 1993, off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.

• Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996, off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row D, Seat 23).

• Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.

BALLPARK TOURS

Fans continue to flock to Camden Yards even when the Orioles aren't playing. Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, more than 400,000 people have toured the nation's most talked about ballpark. Last year, 59,712 people took the tour, which includes behind the scenes looks at the club level suites, press box, scoreboard control room and dugouts. In May 1999, more than 15,000 people toured Oriole Park, the largest one-month total in the ballpark history. Public tours of Oriole Park and the grounds are given daily throughout the year except when the Orioles play an afternoon game at home. Tour tickets are sold on the day of tours and are available on a first-come, first-served basis at the Orioles Box Office, located at the north end of the B&O Warehouse. For tour schedule, prices and private group tour information, call 410-547-6234.

ATTENDANCE

The 1999 Orioles drew 3,433,150 for 80 home dates, an average of 42,914 fans per date. They led the American League in average attendance for the fifth straight season and despite playing one fewer date because of rainouts, their total attendance was only 35,310 less than the league-leading Cleveland Indians. The Orioles have drawn five of the 16 highest single season attendance totals in major league history:

LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the A.L. in total or average attendance until 1995. They've now led the league in average attendance for five straight years and were denied their fifth consecutive total attendance crown when rainouts caused by Hurricane Floyd on Sept. 15-16 forced them to lose one home date. The O's were one of three A.L. and eight major league teams to top the 3 million mark in 1998. The Orioles average of 42,914 fans per game was second oin the majors to Colorado (42,976).

MORE THAN 27 MILLION SOLD: In eight seasons at Oriole Park, the O's have drawn 27,323,044 fans for 609 home dates, an average of 44,865 per game. It took until their 27th season and 1,866 dates for the Orioles to draw as many fans to their former home, Memorial Stadium, topping the Camden Yards total on Aug. 17, 1980. Total attendance in 38 seasons (2,716 dates) at Memorial Stadium was 49,845,588.

SELLOUTS: The Orioles recorded 17 sellouts in 1999, and now have sold out 368 of 609 dates in eight seasons at Camden Yards (60.4%). The O's sold out a then-major league-record 65 consecutive dates form May 23, 1992 through April 20, 1993. The Cleveland Indians broke that mark in 1996.

LARGEST CROWDS, LARGEST SERIES: In 1999, the Orioles drew the three largest crowds ever to watch regular season games at Oriole Park, all three marking the first to draw more than 48,500 fans. The Orioles-Angels game on July 24 drew a record 48,544 fans, topping the record set only seven weeks earlier. On June 5, the Orioles and Phillies drew 48,531 fans, the first regular season crowd to top the 48,500 mark. On Aug. 7, the Orioles-Tigers game attracted 48,505 fans, the third largest crowd ever.

In 1998, the Orioles drew both the largest three-date and four-date series in Camden Yards history. The Aug. 21-23, 1998 series vs. Cleveland drew the largest three-date total in park history, 144,784. The top four-date series was 192, 494 for the July 9-12, 1998 set with Boston.

The Orioles have drawn 40,000 or more fans on 565 of 609 regular season dates at Oriole Park (92.8%). They have drawn 47,000 or more for 189 dates, including 18 in 1999. Oriole Park's four largest crowds all-time came during the 1997 post-season, topped by the 49,137 fans who attended Game 3 of the Division Series vs. Seattle. The three games vs. Cleveland in the 1997 American League Championship series are the only three other games to draw more than 49,000 fans.

SMALLEST CROWDS: A weekday make-up game against the Texas Rangers on June 20, 1996 drew the smallest crowd ever to attend a game at Oriole Park - 21,748. The make-up was supposed to have been played as part of a doubleheader the previous night, but rain caused the second game to be postponed. The doubleheader was necessitated when the June 17 game between the two clubs ended in a 1-1 tie when rain forced its postponement. The only three dates to draw fewer than 30,000 fans since the ballpark opened have been on week-day make-up games, including the 21,983 who attended an August 15, 1997 game against Seattle that had been cancelled the night before because of a lighting failure in the ballpark (The other date-22,564 for an April 22, 1993 make-up game vs Chicago, ending a string of 65 consecutive sellouts). There have been only eight occasions when the Orioles have drawn fewer than 35,000 at Oriole Park.

RADIO

Announcers: Jim Hunter, Fred Manfra and Chuck Thompson

WBAL (1090 AM) is in its 13th consecutive season as the flagship station for the Orioles radio network. The 2000 season also marks the 35th time since Baltimore returned to the major leagues 47 seasons ago that WBAL has originated Orioles broadcasts. The station first carried Orioles games in 1957, the club's fourth season.

Orioles games are heard on the region's two most powerful 50,000-watt AM stations. In addition to WBAL in Baltimore, WTOP (1500 AM) in Washington, D.C., will once again carry Orioles games this season, meaning O's fans in the mid-Atlantic area will never be out of radio range. In all, there are 16 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering seven states and the District of Columbia.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 4th year as a member of the Orioles and WBAL Radio broadcast team. He was named to the post on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 22 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 41, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Jerry Coleman. In 1996, he called the American League Division Series in which the Orioles downed the Cleveland Indians, three games to one, and the NLCS. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

During the off-season, Jim hosts the weekly Orioles "Hot Stove" show on WBAL, live from the ESPN Zone in Baltimore's Inner Harbor. This past offseason, Jim announced college basketball for Fox Sports Net and Comcast Cable Network in addition to his many appearances in the community on behalf of the ballclub.

When Jim began his career at CBS in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host Sportsbreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. In was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ and he was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ.

On February 1, 1998, Jim received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association.

Jim resides in Fallston, MD with his wife, Bonnie. They have three children: Jimmy (15), Jeffrey (13), and Allie (9) and a faithful dog named Garth.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 8th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City and WBAL Radio in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network.

The past two seasons, Fred also called some action from the television booth, working with HTS on four spring training broadcasts.

Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Oriole broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the 1st time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

But baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume inclues some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991) and horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982-99.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984), Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988), Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992) and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies, other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball , boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he's received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD. They have two daughters, Michelle, who graduated from Towson University last year, and Stephanie, a former All-Harford County basketball player, who is a freshman at the University of Florida.

CHUCK THOMPSON

On February 9, 1993, the long-overdue word came from Cooperstown that Chuck Thompson officially belonged in the Hall of Fame, an honor Orioles fans knew years before. His place was secured when he was named the winner of the 1993 Ford C. Frick Award. With that distinction, he took residence in the broadcaster wing alongside the likes of Harry Caray, Vin Scully, Jack Buck and former Orioles announcer Ernie Harwell, among others. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 1, 1993.

A longtime legend in our town, Chuck was coaxed out of a 3-year retirement and returned to the radio booth in 1991 on a part-time basis. This year, he will again work the Orioles home schedule with Fred Manfra and Jim Hunter. Chuck's voice has evoked memories for Baltimore sports fans for over half a century, beginning with the International League Orioles in 1949.

He was a veteran announcer before arriving in Baltimore, having started his career in 1939 at WRAW in Reading, Pa. From there, he went to Philadelphia's WIBG in '42 to do Temple University football. He served in the Army during World War II and saw action in 3 major European campaigns. After the war, he returned to Philadelphia, doing radio for the Phillies and Athletics in baseball, the Warriors in basketball, Eagles in football and Rockets in ice hockey.

The 2000 season marks Chuck's 51st year of broadcasting in Baltimore! He came to Baltimore in 1949 and became the voice of the International League Orioles and also did the All-America Conference Colts and Navy football as well as Bullets basketball. In 1955, he joined the National Brewing Company's team of announcers and during a 24-year association, did American League Orioles games in 1955-56 and again from 1962-87. In between, he was the radio voice of the Washington Senators ('57-'61).

In 1959 and 1960, he was on television doing NBC-TV's Game of the Week, including the 1960 World Series call of Bill Mazeroski's famous game-winning, 9th-inning home run which won the 7th and deciding game for Pittsburgh. He later did Orioles World Series games on national television in '66, '69, '70 and '71.

Equally acclaimed as the announcer for Baltimore Colts football, he called the "Greatest Game Ever Played," the classic overtime contest for the 1958 NFL title between the Colts and the New York Giants. He also worked the Colts-Packers overtime contest for the NFL's Western Division title in 1965 for CBS-TV.

He has been named the outstanding broadcaster in Maryland by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association on numerous occasions. And in 1995, he was the first non-uniformed inductee into the Orioles Hall of Fame, receiving the Herbert Armstrong Award.

Chuck is a golfing and fishing enthusiast and his wife, Betty, is an outstanding cook. He has 4 children, 12 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. The Thompsons split their time between homes in Timonium, MD, and Bradenton, FL.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, three other broadcasters with connections to the Birds have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), and Bob Murphy ('60-'61) also have been enshrined at Cooperstown with Chuck.

TELEVISION

Announcers: Jim Palmer, Mike Flanagan, Michael Reghi

For the 7th season, CBS Broadcasting, which owns and operates Home Team Sports (HTS) cable and Baltimore's WJZ-TV, will have exclusive rights to produce, televise and sell advertising for all Orioles games, excluding those carried nationally or regionally through Fox Television or ESPN. HTS, which has telecast Orioles games since 1984, will carry 85 regular season and 5 exhibition games. WJZ-TV will telecast 37 regular season games and its broadcast partner, WB54-TV in Baltimore, will air 28 games.

This unique arrangement allows Orioles fans to receive the same highly-acclaimed, award-winning quality telecasts on each outlet, using the same production and broadcast team on cable and on-air. 156 of the team's regular season contests will be televised in 1999, including 150 games scheduled for local broadcast. In addition, four Orioles games are slated for broadcast on Fox Television and two on ESPN.

Home Team Sports (HTS) is available to cable systems in the 6-state Capital Region, which includes all of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and Washington, D.C., and parts of North Carolina, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

WJZ-TV (Channel 13, CBS) and WNUV-TV (Channel 54, Paramount) will split the over-the-air broadcasts again this season. In addition, WB50-TV (Channel 50), will serve as the Orioles television outlet in Washington, D.C., carrying 55 regular season games.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 8th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 359.

MIKE FLANAGAN

The Orioles Hall of Famer returns for his second straight season in the broadcast booth after serving as the Orioles pitching coach in 1998. Mike was a member of the Orioles broadcast team in 1996 and '97 before serving his second one-year stint on the Orioles coaching staff. Mike was also the O's pitching coach in 1995 under former manager Phil Regan.

Mike will team up with Jim Palmer and Michael Reghi to bring Orioles fans all the action on HTS and O's TV. Flanagan is the 4th winningest pitcher in Orioles history. He pitched for the organization in 17 of his 20 professional seasons. The southpaw compiled a 141-116 record for the Orioles over 15 seasons, and in 1979 won the American League Cy Young Award with a 23-9 record. In 18 major league seasons, he posted a 167-143 record with a 3.90 ERA. Mike reached double figures in victories eight times at the major league level and he appeared in 450 games for the Orioles, 3rd most in club history.

He was traded by the Orioles to the Blue Jays (8/31/87) for Jose Mesa and Oswald Peraza and pitched for Toronto through 1990. A starter his entire career, he moved to the bullpen upon his return to the Orioles in 1991, and made 63 relief appearances, including the memorable finale in the last game played at Memorial Stadium. On 10/6/91, Flanagan relieved Gregg Olson with one out in the 9th inning, and to the overwhelming joy of 50,700 sentimental fans, struck out the Tigers' Dave Bergman and Travis Fryman to become the last Oriole to throw a pitch on 33rd Street.

Mike and his wife, Alex, reside in Parkton, MD. He has three children: Kerry, Kathryn, and Kendall. "Flanny" was a basketball and baseball player at the University of Massachusetts where he once played against Julius Erving in a frosh-varsity game. He was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994 in his first year of eligibility. Mike was originally signed by former Orioles scout John Stokoe. His hobbies include fishing.

MICHAEL REGHI

Michael Reghi returns for his 4th season as the Orioles play-by-play announcer and will again team with analysts Jim Palmer and Mike Flanagan to call the action on Orioles telecasts on HTS and for O's TV games on Orioles broadcast flagship WJZ TV in Baltimore and Baltimore's WB54 as well as Washington, DC's WB50.

Reghi joined the Orioles and HTS in 1997 with extensive broadcasting credentials. He served as the play-by-play announcer for Cleveland Cavalier telecasts since 1994 and continues to do so in baseball's off-season. Additionally, he was the pre-game host of Cleveland Indians telecasts for SportsChannel-Ohio from 1992-1996.

A native of Detroit, Michael also has handled play-by-play duties for the Canadian Football League and college basketball coverage on ESPN and ESPN2, as well as Big Ten football coverage on PASS Sports. Last summer, Michael served as play-by-by announcer for the Cleveland Browns' preseason games and will do so again this year.

After beginning his career in 1980 as a sports anchor for WLIO TV in Lima, Ohio, Reghi moved forward to WNWO TV in Toledo, Ohio and WEWS TV in Cleveland in 1983. He became sports director at Toledo's WTVG TV in 1986 and also hosted post-game call-in radio programs for Cleveland's all sports station, WKNR Radio following Cleveland Indians and Cleveland Browns games from 1991-96.

When he is not at a ballgame, Michael fills his time with tennis, golf, theater and work with Baltimore's Big Brothers and Big Sisters programs. He also appeared as a baseball playing extra in the 1978 film, "One in a Million," the story of former Detroit Tigers outfielder Ron LeFlore.

Reghi was an All-City linebacker and third baseman when he attended Detroit's Cass Tech High School. He graduated from Arizona State University in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in television and mass communications. In 1998, he married the former Jackie Tilman, a registered nurse at the Cleveland Clinic. They currently reside in Westlake, Ohio during the off-season.

TOM DAVIS

Baltimore native Tom Davis has been the host of Oriole telecasts on HTS since the cable station began in 1984. In addition to anchoring "The Orioles Report" 30 minutes before each HTS game, Tom provides in-game score updates, highlights, behind-the-scene interviews and post-game interviews.

Now in his 29th year as a local sportscaster, Tom has been sports director for WQSR (105.7FM) since July, 1988, doing updates and commentary on the station's "Rouse & Company" morning show. He also produces and hosts the popular TV shows "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" (during the baseball season) and "Touchdown Baltimore" with Johnny Unitas (during the football season).

A 5-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award, Tom began his career as a weekend sportscaster for WBAL-TV in the early '70s. He also worked at WBAL radio and had two stints at WCBM-AM.

Tom also has worked for NBC-TV, where he did play-by-play for NFL games in 1986. On NBC Radio, he did play-by-play for the 1987 Gator Bowl and the 1987 AFC playoff game between the Jets and Browns. He also served as host for NBC Radio's coverage of the 1988 Summer Olympics in Seoul, Korea, as well as doing play-by-play on men's basketball and boxing. He has done play-by-play on a number of college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in 1983-84.

Tom also served as play-by-play announcer for the first game played at Baltimore's PSINet Stadium on August 8, 1998, an exhibition game between the Ravens and Chicago Bears. He lists one of his greatest thrills as calling Cal Ripken's 400th career home run last season.

A graduate of Calvert Hall College HS, he received a BS degree in Marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. Tom lives in Baltimore County and is the father of two children, Malinda (25) and Tad (22), who is a HTS cameraman.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July 1960, the Advocates will celebrate their 40th anniversary this summer. Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and in '77 established the Orioles Hall of Fame.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations, Community Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in '63, then administered it for 25 years. Membership in that program rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in '77.

The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do. They are volunteers, constantly demonstrating the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

Through their efforts, the Orioles were able to raise their season ticket sales from 1,600 in 1979 to more than 27,500 in 1992 when Camden Yards opened. The current role of the Orioles DHs includes helping the ballclub with ticket sales to business and organizations throughout the Orioles region.
